Y. P. A. Notes

On next Sunday evening our Y. P. A. will have an especially interesting meeting. We will begin promptly at 7 o'clock, and Miss Gladys Nichols will have charge of the regular program which will continue for only fifteen or twenty minutes. The meeting will then be given over to Ralph Fry, who, as delegate, will give a report of who, as delegate, will give a report of the Kansas Conference convention which has just been in session at Lawrence, Kansas.

We will also have special music, and we expect every member to be present to enjoy the program. Visitors wel-PRESIDENT. come.

-Kathryn Keeves is in Forest City, visiting her cousins, Lewis, Paul, Raymond and Donald Shumate.

-- Dr. A. G. Young and Miss.Julia Devorse, of Forbes, left Tuesday, of this week, for an extensive western trip. They go direct to Denver, where they will be joined by Mrs. Young. They will take in the Pacific Exposition. Seattle, Portland, the Yellowstone Park, Los Angeles, San Diego, taking a steamer from Seattle to Frisco; on return they will take in the wonders of the Grand Canyon.

-"Dad," Chare Castle, is surely a disciple of Isaak Walton, and an ardent one, too. The first of the week, the hied himself away, and all alone to Mill Creek, with fishinok and line, can of worms, lunch and other fixin's. and we must not forget the creel or basket to put his fish in, which he sat in the water, leaving a few inches
